As part of the accountability process, school districts report their results to their communities and in doing so, they allow stakeholders to see how the school district is performing, which makes the entire education system more open and accountable.

This year Lakeland Catholic School District celebrates Accountability Results that demonstrate continuous improvement (Please see the Table listed above). The overall measures include seven out of fifteen measures that scored “Excellent” (blue), six out of fifteen measures that scored “Good” (green) and two out of fifteen measures that scored “Acceptable” (yellow). There were no measures recognized as an “Issue” (orange) or a “Concern” (red).
