

Lakeland Catholic is Pleased to Announce Nicole Hebert
As the New Religious Education Coordinator

Lakeland Catholic School District is pleased to announce Nicole Hebert as the new Religious Education Coordinator for the District.

Nicole was born in Edmonton and raised in St. Lina, Alberta. She graduated with a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Alberta with a major in Physical Education and a minor in French. She has been an educator for twenty-seven years.

Her first teaching position was with Fort McMurray Catholic Schools. She then moved to St. Vincent, Alberta with her husband Mitch and began teaching at Mallaig School. She taught there for seventeen years. Since 2008, she has been the Assistant Principal at St. Paul Elementary School.

Nicole and her husband have been married for twenty-seven years. They operate a mixed farm. In the winter, she enjoys curling a couple times a week and she is on the Mallaig Curling Club Executive.

Nicole just completed a four-year term on the Parish Council.

Nicole and Mitch have three adult children, Kasondra is twenty-six and is a Physiotherapist, Jordan is twenty-four and is completing his schooling for Optometry and Seleena is twenty and in her second year of Education.

In 2015, Nicole received the Excellence in Catholic Education Award.

Nicole says she looks forward to working in a Catholic district once again and having the opportunity to create many new relationships, within a community of Catholic fellowship. She said, "I am excited about collaborating with people and learning with them. I use Phillipians 4:13 as my daily reminder. 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.'"

Nicole will begin her position in August 2017. Congratulations Nicole and welcome to the Lakeland Catholic Family.
